Marketing SWGLAS: A Customer-Centered Approach

Tuesday, November 8, 2011

On Tuesday, November 8, 2011, the Southwest Georgia Library for Accessible Services hosted “Marketing SWGLAS: A Customer-Centered Approach” with Christie Koontz, Ph.D. Attendees learned the fundamental concepts of marketing, the practical steps in any successful marketing plan and identified marketing activities in reference to the Southwest Georgia Library for Accessible Services. An evaluation was provided at the conclusion of the workshop for attendees. 100% of the respondents indicated that the workshop was relevant to their jobs, provided useful knowledge and skills, introduced new information and practices, provided a balance of theory and practical application, met their expectations, was valuable for their professional development, provided relevant handouts, and it was what they expected based on the workshop description. The broadcast of this workshop will be available on our website at www.swgri.org/handicap.php.

Feed My Lambs

Thursday, December 1, 2011 at 5:30 p.m.

Join Chris Smith, author of the children's book Feed My Lambs: Alphabet Scripture Songs, at the Decatur County–Gilbert H. Gragg Library on Thursday, December 1, 2011 at 5:30 p.m. Children attending the program will learn some of her songs. Her book and CD will be available for sale and signing during the event.

Chris Smith is a pastor's wife, mother of three daughters, and enjoys singing, songwriting, and writing about her travels abroad. Smith has a Master's degree in Foreign Language Education through the Auburn University Study Abroad Program. Her studies and sojourn with a French family inspired her to write France Insolite: Spiritual Journeys in France. Teaching languages has helped her to make many multi-cultural friendships partnering her with mission trips in Mexico, Martinique, Haiti, and France.

Chris has also served as an interpreter for the deaf and as a teacher of Special Friends

"Children attending the program will learn some of her songs."

Sunday School class with her Down's syndrome daughter, Carey Beth. She has directed Children, Youth, and Adult choirs, summer music camps and community-wide musicals. Her love for sharing Christ through music has led her to produce three albums: Feed My Lambs Alphabet Scripture Songs for young children; Power in the Pages, a gospel album; Trinity Treasures: Redeemer a contemporary Christian album; and three singles: God is Our Refuge and Strength, I Can Do All Things, and Spinnin' Ginny.

Give a Unique Gift

For that special someone!

Are you dreading those holiday crowds this season? Are you unsure of making online purchases for your holiday gifts? Instead of that, why not donate a book in honor of that special someone in your life.

You can give the library either a new book or you can send a check so the library can order the item. This is a great gift idea for that person in your life who is difficult to buy for. Each book will have a special bookplate inserted recognizing your loved one. You can do this at any one of our convenient locations in Decatur, Miller, or Seminole counties.

Give the gift that the entire community can enjoy!

This year, give the gift that the entire community can enjoy!
